THE NEW YORK HOTELS .- The splendid marble hotels of New York, which have been so much supported by the resort and travel of Southerners, are doing little or nothing. It was the wealth of the South that made and kept them up. The New York Journal of Commerce says:

"The hotel business in New York is exceedingly dull, Compared with last year at this time, almost nothing is doing. The propertyowners, in some instances, have been offered the choice of closing up the premises, or accepting a nominal rent-landlords and tenants dividing the losses."

They have also got the "blockade" up at Saratoga, where Southerners have heretofore flocked to spend their money. The receipts of one of the leaning hotels on the 4th of July were $87, against $1,400 last year. Not a hotel in the place begins to pay expenses. Last week there was but a single name on any hotel register from any Southern State.

LANCOLN'S CABINET .- The following is from the New York Herald. It would not surprise us much if the people of the "whole North" yet got to fighting amongst themselves, and thus fulfill'John Cochrane's prophecy in his Richmond speech last winter:

"The indignation of the whole North is aroused against the Cabinet of President Lincoln, and its removal is demanded on grounds so imperative that they will be insisted upon, until the incompetent and untrustworthy percons who surround the executive chall have been deprived of the responsible positions they occupy. Every day develops some new corruption or instance of favoritism or misrule. It is alleged, with grounds of credence that cannot be disputed, that the motives for leaving our regiments so badly commanded have been in a great measure personal. This should all be made to cease at once, and a new regime should commence which will put the efficient army officers now languishing in inactivity in the places which are theirs by right."

A CARD. CHARLESTON, 1st August, 1861. To the Officers of the 1st Regiment S. C. V. in South Carolina

It has pleased God to remove our fellow-soldier, CHARLES H. AXSON, from amongst us. As a testimony of respects to his memory, I would ask that the usual badge of mourning be worn for the period of thirty days.

I feel that I do him no more than justice, when I say that he was one of the best Officers in the Regiment-always ready, strict and punctilious in the discharge of every duty. His marly hearing and genial spirit had endeared him such to us and from his place in our gapks we shall miss him. Had it been his fate to fall in batttle, we could have given him up to his country with cheerfulness ; but to be cut down in the pride of manhood by the assassin's hand, comes upon us a heavy

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully. D. H. HAMILTON Lieut-Colonel 1st Regiment S. C. V.

CONFIRMATION OF MCCULLOCH'S VICTORY .-NASHVILLE, August 3 .- Reliable information has been received here, stating that Gen. Mc-Culloch, with 12,000 Confederate troops, attacked the federalist forces, under Seigle, at Springfield, Missouri, on Friday, the 26th ultimo, killing 600 and taking an equal number of prisoners. The Confederate loss was very trif ling. The victory was complete

OBITUARY.

VINTON C., 3d son of John C. and Elvira Carter, was born the 27th Marc', 1841, and died of Typhoid fever, in the house of Mrs Kerkman, Culpepper Court House, Virginia, July 11th: 1861.

The deceased was a native of our District, from the neighborhood of Cokesbury, and a young man of fine qualities. Last fall he pro-Sessed religion and joined the Methodist church in his community, and up to his death was a in his community, and up to his death was a old stand, on his own account, and hope to reconsistent member. In January when a call was made for volunteers through the State he was among the first to hear and obey that gall, for the defence of his native State. After the attack upon Fort Sumter had been made, and the volunteers were called upon to rally and higslen to the sea board, in a few days he was at his post and with his company on their rapid journey to the seat of danger. But, after Sampter had been successfully bombarded and made to yield to Southern bravery and skill and the troops were no longer needed to defend that point, and Virginia about to secood and threatened with invasion, he unnesitatingly re-volunteered for the service of the Confederacy, and was soon landed at Richmond, the Capital of Virginia. After Alexandria had been taken by the vandals, and it became necessary to block up their onward move to Richmond, his regiment was sent up to Mafrom exposure his disease ended in Typhoid Aver and death. One of his commanding officers said of him, he was a good soldier, always residy and willing. The young friend who not, for your less is his eternal gain ;' O think, the field a christian. STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

HEADQUARTERS, July 15, 1861. By the Governor of South Carolina. A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERI-CA has made a requisition upon the State of South Carolina for three thousand men, that being the quota of the State in the additional force now being called out; and whereas, it is required that the Volunteers offering for this service shall be received 'for and during the continuance of the war;" and whereas, it is right and proper that such requisition should e promptly complied with.

Therefore, I. F. W. PICKENS, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the State of South Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me by law, do hereby proclaim that Volunteers for this service are desired and will be accepted, in companies, "for and during the continuance of the war," to the number of the three thousand men; each company to be composed of one Captain, one Lieutenant, two Second Licatenants, four Sergeants, four Corporals, two musicians, and not less than sixtyfour, nor more than one hundred privates; the four, nor more than one hundred privates; the officers to be elected by the companies respectively. No men will be received, except those of proper age and health.

And for the purpose of organization and instruction, I do hereby designate "Lightwood Knot Springs," near Columbia, and some proper place at or near Aiken, as points for the establishment of camps; and each company, after a full and accurate roll of its members, and certificates of the elections of its officers, shall have been returned to the Adjutant General of the State, will repair to the camp nearest to it, there to be mustered into service, and to be organized into Battalions or Regiments. It will not be a pre-requisite in the acceptance of these companies, that they shall be armed, although it is hoped that many of them will be.

And I do further proclaim, that all the men or companies who volunteered under the Act of 1860, and who declined, for divers reasons, nustering into Confederate service, and whose Regiments have gone to Virginia, may now volunteer into this service, and in certain cases where cavalry companies have been disorganized, their members also may volunteer as infantry under this requisition.

fantry under this requisition.

And I do further proclaim, that no other Companies. Battations or Regiments will be received until this force of three thousand men be raised.

be raised.

Two additional Regiments "for the war" are also called for immediately; and I have designated the Regiment now raised by Colonel Orr "for the war," as one, and have offered the other to Colonel Gregg.

Given under my hand, as Governor and Communder in Chief, and under the seal of the State, at Columbia, this, the fitteenth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty one, and in the eighty-aixili year of the Independence of South Caroliba.
